

Carmen Avello

Carmen Avello, Esq., the founding attorney of Aspire Law Group, has been licensed to practice law in Nevada since 2000.

Carmen graduated from Texas Tech School of Law in 1998 and immediately moved to Las Vegas. Throughout the years, she has served Southern Nevada as a Nevada Legislature Sunset Subcommittee member; a Nevada Secretary of State Advisory Committee member; a Latino Bar Association past president; and is currently the State Bar of Nevada Transitioning Into Practice (TIP) Committee chair.

Carmen's practice is focused on the areas of estate planning, family law and business law. She has also served the community through countless pro bono hours representing children in the Child Advocacy Program.
