

Autobiography – Rev Kufre-Abasi Effiong Etim

Rev. Kufre-Abasi Effiong Etim, born on August 14, 1995, is from Ekpene Ukim in Uruan Local Government Area, Akwa Ibom State, Nigeria. On Sunday, January 26, 2020, he was ordained into the Office of the Holy Ministry of Word and Sacrament at Peace Lutheran Church, Sussex, Wisconsin. He holds a Master of Sacred Theology (STM) in Systematic Theology from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana, USA.

Rev. Etim serves as the Chief Executive Officer of Hope and Care for Children (HCC), Inc. – Liberia, providing faith-driven leadership in child welfare, education, and holistic development.

In addition to his executive role, he is actively involved in missions, church planting, and offers leadership and mission-focused classroom instruction, shaped by his experience as a Seminary Professor at Jonathan Ekong Memorial Lutheran Seminary, Obot Idim, Nigeria.

Rev. Etim is married and blessed with an amazing daughter. Outside ministry and work, he enjoys fishing, playing chess, and above all, loving and serving Jesus Christ.