Education/Work History

With a degree in Hotel and Restaurant Management Yvonne's background in the hospitality industry with Ritz Carlton and Marriott have provided the foundation for the level of service she and her team provide and was a perfect fit.

When Yvonne's children were young, she was a substitute teacher the Summerlin/Las Vegas area for 10 years and understands the importance of education and created long term relationships with the teachers and staff.

About Me

Yvonne has been married for over 32 years and has 2 grown daughters that live in New York City. She is an avid traveler both in the United States and Internationally. Yvonne's passion for volunteering led her to be President of a 5013C, Hope and Care outreach- an orphanage in Liberia West Africa which now has a school, provides micro loans for women, farming and animal husbandry. Yvonne's active lifestyle includes snow skiing, biking, swimming, and hiking at Red Rock or Mount Charleston. Cooking is also a passion of hers with her past food and beverage background. If you ever need something to do in Las Vegas Yvonne enjoys all that Southern Nevada has to offer and can offer ideas for any age or lifestyle.

Community Service

Locally the Angarola Group volunteers in numerous areas from serving food at the Rescue Mission, collecting food and clothing for the homeless, Homes for Hero's, Wreaths across America, Lone Wolf Dog Rescue, or picking up trash in our parks we love to give back to our community. Out Team goal is to have one community service project a month.

About Us

The Angarola's Group Concierge style service stems from Yvonne's hospitality background. The team's goal is to anticipate our client's needs from start to finish. It does not end at closing we are part their lives with continued communication and client events. We have 9 agents with agents specializing in VA, Senior Specialist, Relocation, and even have bilingual Agents to assist with any type of transaction.
